HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE Baptists of Ohio had long felt the importance of having a School for their daughters in the same locality with the University; but the difficulty of obtaining funds for buildings and suitable fixtures had been so formidable as to discourage efforts at providing them.

During the summer of 1859, a few brethren in Granville and vicinity, in view of the necessity of having a Young Ladies' School, decided to undertake the establishment of such a school without buildings, hoping that some means might be used to meet the necessities of the case, when the denomination should learn its merits. Rev. N. S. BURTON and Mrs. BURTON accordingly opened a school in the basement of the Baptist Church, and during the first year were assisted in the labor of teaching by the Professors of the University, gratuitously.

The success of the experiment the first year encouraged the employment of an increased number of teachers; accordingly Miss L. S. CARTER, of Cleveland, was called to assist Mr. and Mrs. BURTON, in the Literary and Scientific Department, and Miss EMMA STULTS, of Bellevue, in the Musical Department. The success of the school exceeded the expectations of its founders, and won for it the favorable opinion of the public.

In May, 1861, Rev. M. STONE purchased the buildings, grounds, furniture and apparatus of the Episcopal Female Seminary, added a fourth story to the main building, refitted the establishment, and opened it for the Institute, September 4th, 1861.

The following ladies graduated under the administration of Mr. BURTON:

Course of Study.

Reading, Orthography, Orthoepey, Composition of Words, Penmanship, and Composition will be attended to throughout the course, more or less, and need not, therefore, be mentioned among the studies of each class.

Preparatory Department.

Mental Arithmetic (Colburn's); Written Arithmetic through Common Fractions (Adams'); Elements of English Grammar (Goold Brown's); and Geography (Mitchell's).

Freshman Class.

FIRST TERM.—Arithmetic, English Grammar and United States History.

SECOND TERM.—Arithmetic(completed), English Grammar and Modern History.

THIRD TERM.—Geography of the Heavens, Analysis and Latin Grammar.

Sophomore Class.

FIRST TERM.—Algebra, Ancient History and Latin Reader.

SECOND TERM.—Algebra, Latin Reader, Cæsar and Physiology.

THIRD TERM.—Algebra (completed), Cæsar and Botany (Wood's).

Junior Class.

FIRST TERM.—Geometry, Sallust and Natural Philosophy (Olmsted).

SECOND TERM.—Geometry, Virgil and Rhetoric (Quackenbos').

THIRD TERM.—Trigonometry, Kames' Elements and Chemistry (Gray's).

Senior Class.

FIRST TERM.—Natural Theology, Evidences of Christianity and Geology.

SECOND TERM.—Astronomy, Logic and Moral Science.

THIRD TERM.—Butler's Analogy and Intellectual Philosophy.

Those who can not complete the course will be permitted to recite with the regular classes in any studies for which they are prepared.

LOCATION.

The Institute is in the center of the State, in one of the most beautiful and healthful regions of the West. The country is beautifully diversified with hill and valley. The town is in a valley surrounded by hills, presenting one of the loveliest pictures in nature.

Denison University, being located here, has given a literary cast to society, which cannot fail to inspire ambition for excellence in scholarship, especially as the pupils are brought into competition with students of the other sex pursuing the same studies, and using the same text-books.

Granville is in Licking County, $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Union Station, on the Central Ohio Railroad, and six miles from Newark, from each of which places hacks run to Granville on the arrival of the trains.

AIMS.

It is the decided purpose of the Faculty to make good scholars and practical women. We hope to avoid the error to which female schools are liable (or rather, perhaps, with which they are charged) of making drawing-room ornaments merely.

We shall endeavor to cultivate the graces of behavior through the affections. We shall insist on thorough preparation for every lesson, strict observance of the hours of study, promptness at recitations and at chapel, and regular attendance at church (the church chosen by parents or guardians).

BUILDINGS.

The buildings are sufficient to accommodate the teachers and about fifty boarding pupils, with all necessary recitation rooms, library, apparatus, music and painting rooms. They are surrounded by ample and beautiful grounds, and furnish a delightful home for the inmates of the school.

LIBRARY.

A library has already been established, to which accessions are being constantly made. By an arrangement with the Board of the University, the pupils of the Institute can draw from that ample collection.

APPARATUS.

The Institute is provided with apparatus for illustrating the most important facts in Natural Science, and new articles will be added to meet the necessities of the classes.

ADMISSION.

Pupils will be received at any time, and assigned places in classes for which they are prepared. It is, however, very desirable that they should enter at the beginning of a term, and continue to the end. No deduction from bills will be made for a few days' absence at the beginning or end of a term. A few days' board and tuition is not to be compared with the derangement of classes or unsuccessful pursuit of studies, under the disadvantage of having passed superficially over elementary principles.

DIPLOMAS

Will be awarded to those who have completed the prescribed course, and borne a satisfactory examination in the studies of the same, provided their deportment has been good. Such as pursue a limited course will have certificates of their standing in the branches studied.

Graduates will be required to have a standing of at least eighty per cent. in the studies of the course.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. No one will be received, except by special arrangement, at the time of entering, for less than a term, or the remainder of the term in which she enters, and no deduction will be made for absence, except from protracted sickness.
2. Each young lady should bring an umbrella, a pair of thick, soled shoes, or overshoes, napkins, towels, sheets and pillow cases. All articles should be distinctly and indelibly marked.
3. It is very desirable that pupils should be provided with all needful clothing for the term, to prevent interruption of study in providing them.
4. Occupants of rooms will be held responsible for injury done to rooms and furniture.
5. Parents are requested to insist on frugality in expenses in their daughters and wards. Nuts, candies, raisins, sweetmeats, &c., are liable to occasion serious interruptions in study. Simplicity in dress is also very desirable for many reasons. The teachers and pupils board at the same table, where there will always be ample supplies of wholesome food.
6. Liberal deductions will be made in the bills of the daughters of pastors and persons of limited means, according to circumstances.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The year is divided into three terms:

The first (twelve weeks) beginning September 4th, 1862, followed by a vacation of one week.

The second beginning December 4th, (fourteen weeks) followed by a vacation of one week.

The third beginning Thursday, March 20th, 1863 (fourteen weeks), ending June 25th, 1863, followed by a vacation of ten weeks.
